

WILL PUT INTERNED
SAILORS IN A CAMP

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The 2,300 German and Austrian sailors interned at Ellis Island will soon be moved to a detention camp, probably on the Hudson River, according to Commissioner of Immigration Howe. A suitable place is expected to be found within a month, and the sailors will be moved before hot weather.

The chief reason is to relieve the congestion on Ellis Island. It is also believed the sailors would be more comfortable amid new surroundings.

Just Glasses!

That's all we make, but it keeps us mighty busy, for our satisfactory, scientific service has brought us the largest clientele in the world.

Because of our organization, and the volume of our patronage, we can give unusual service to our patrons.

Oculists (Registered Physicians) give careful examinations, and glasses are fitted by experienced Opticians.

Our prices are reasonable and the same to everyone—$2.00 and upward, according to the kind of lenses required and the mounting chosen.

JANITRESS'S SON SAVES LIFE OF LITTLE GIRL AT FIRE

Gropes Way Into Smoke-Filled Room and Finds Child, Unconscious, in Burning Bed.

Michael Gilio, son of the janitress of the six-story tenement at No. 94 Roosevelt Street, qualified for hero honors to-day. Leaving the house, which is filled with Italian and Polish families, just before 7 o'clock he saw smoke coming from an apartment in the rear of the ground floor, where he knew three and one-half year-old Sabina Lubiski, whose parents go to work real early, was the only occupant. He roused other tenants and then broke down the door of the apartment.

Heavy black smoke almost choked him, but Michael groped his way about the rooms until he found the little girl in bed, the mattress of which was on fire. The child was unconscious. Michael carried her to a nearby drug store, from which she was taken to Volunteer Hospital. The doctors say her condition is not serious.

Firemen confined the fire to the room in which it started.

ALLEGED WIFE HIRED BOY
TO MURDER HER HUSBAND

She, Her Sister, and Youth of 16 All Under Arrest Accused of the Crime.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., April 20.—The discovery to-day of the body of Miles Hewitt, thirty-eight, buried in the basement of the barn on the farm he formerly owned, was followed by the arrest of Lincoln McKinley Grant, sixteen, on a charge of first degree murder.

It is alleged that Grant killed Hewitt, his employer, last February. This week, the police say, Grant enlisted in the army and was to have left the farm to-morrow.

When Hewitt disappeared in February, he was reported to have gone to Canada. A month later his farm was sold to Armand and Emil Chaffers, who discovered the body. The police say Grant had made a confession. Mrs. Margaret Hewitt, wife of Miles Hewitt, and her sister, Mrs. Colla Nolsterling, were arrested in Springfield early to-day and taken to Pittsfield, where they will be charged with murder in the first degree.
